

Karen L. Stepanik

June 3, 1942 - October 28, 2025

Karen L. (Rings) Stepanik, 83, of Cypress, TX, formerly of North Huntingdon, died Tuesday, October 28, 2025 at her home under the loving care of her son Jeff and his wife Joely Stepanik along with her grandson Max and his wife Molly Stepanik. She was born June 3, 1942 in Braddock, a daughter of the late Clarence Raymond Rings and Eleanor Dabelle (Ackinclose) Rings Martin. Karen was a devout Christian and member of First Presbyterian Church, Irwin and actively attended The Good Shepherd Methodist Church while residing in Texas. Karen was passionate about GOD, her family, her neighbors/friends and spreading kindness. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband Michael J. Stepanik. She is survived by her two sons Jeff Stepanik and Ken Stepanik; her grandchildren Max Stepanik, Zak Stepanik, and Kenzie Hanicak; and her brother Tod Rings. A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, November 22, at the First Presbyterian Church, 617 Main St, Irwin, with Rev. Doug Rehberg, officiating. She will be interred next to her husband at Union Cemetery, North Huntingdon. The William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin, is handling arrangements. “Karen was a dear friend who did a wonderful job leading our Bible study group at church. She hosted some enjoyable summer picnics at her home for our group. She got me involved in the WFRW group and I missed going to their events with her when she moved to Texas. Rest in peace, Karen. You are with your Lord and Savior now. Anna Marie
