“ To the extended loving family of Karen,

Our hearts are broken with yours as we greatly mourn the loss of Karen. She was given the sweetest title of "Camp Grandma Karen" by our 3 small sons ["her boys"] over a decade ago forming treasured childhood memories with her at River's Edge. She was over-generous with her hugs, love and attention as she shared so much kindness and warmth from her heart, not to mention lots of trips for ice cream in the golf cart and hand-crafted gifts. Genuine traits as one would expect of a grandmother, they knew her as nothing less even into their adult years. She was our beautiful friend that we welcomed and embraced as part of our family and were sincerely blessed by her presence in our lives. May cherished memories light your hearts in your time of sorrow, and God's peace lift you in your days of sadness. May the perpetual light shine upon her as she graciously rests in the gentle arms of angels, along with her beloved Larry. Our prayers are with you always.
