“ Dear Cousins,

I'm sorry I was unable to come to Irwin for your mom's service. It's further than I'm comfortable driving since I fractured several bones in my neck and back last fall. Your mom was an important part of our extended family during our growing up years. Things weren't always easy back then, especially after Joyce got hit with polio. Joyce, I remember visiting you while you were in that iron lung. Polio was a real frightening disease back then before Salk and his vaccine.

All of you have my sympathy at this time of loss. It's hard for us who are now the oldest generation of our family. Next to Jim and Judy, I think I'm now the oldest. I don't feel like part of the oldest family generation but that thought is slowly sinking in.

Love and sympathy from your cousin Carol
