“ My deepest sympathy to the Harrison Family and Bollman family, I have known Kelly since 6th Grade and I will miss her sense of humor and her kindness that she has given to my father, George Schneider, as his homecare nurse. I will miss her friendship. She was always really nice to me. She was a very talented person and she liked helping people. Sorry for your loss from the Schneider Family (Dee, Diana, and Jamie, and Matt Paulisick)

“ Words cannot express my shock and sorrow upon learning this devastating news. Kelly was one of my very first colorguard captains at Norwin, a fabulous performer, and a wonderful leader. Band season ~ Solo dancer ~ red dress ~ orange boa!!! My heart and prayers go out to Bob, Chelsea, Chandler, Mr. & Mrs. Harrison, as well as all of her students, past and present. May your memories bring you comfort.

“ Cousins are always the first friends you have. All the Labor Day partys at your childhood house on Country Hills Drive. You will be missed my sweet cousin. My mom, Aunt June, always said we were "kissin' cousins"...never really knew what that meant. Rest well my dear cousin.
