“ Kevin was a great hockey mentor in addition to being a terrific person. Because he got me so interested in hockey while clerking at Penn Hills, I applied for a job at the Consol Energy Center after retiring from the P.O. I have been enjoying working there ever since. I will miss him along with so many others that he touched during his lifetime. My sincere condolences to his family. Bruce Randall

“ We send our love and deepest sympathy to Sue, Shaun and Shannon.
We will remember Kevin as someone who embraced life with joy. He was both modest and generous, and he brought a ray of sunshine to everyone.
We see his smile, his gentleness and kindness in Luca and Landon, and we are grateful that his faith, decency and goodness live on in his grandchildren.
