“ Over the past few years, I've had the pleasure of getting to know Larry. He was a man whose heart was as gentle as his words. He lived with kindness, and always showed respect to those around him. A man of faith, he found strength in his beliefs and shared his wisdom with quiet grace. His soft-spoken nature was calming, and his warmth was felt by all who knew him. Above all, his love for his family (and beagle) was a testament to his tender spirit, finding joy in the simple moments such as sitting out on the porch or working in the garden. He may no longer walk among us, but his legacy of kindness, faith, and love will forever remain with us. My deepest condolences to the Kifer family. - Roy Lenhardt
