“ Lil was always supportive, ever a blessing and encourager of her pastors. We had the pleasure of being in her home in North Irwin on a number occasions, and then afterwards when she moved to Huntingdon Ridge by the Irwin turnpike exit.

The smile in the picture above will always be the way we remember her.

Lil was one of the sweetest ladies I ever met. She seemed so content with her life regardless of how difficult things were. Her positive outlook was infectious and real. She was one of those rare women that I would look at and think, I want to be a Christian like her. She truly loved God and others, she was an inspiration. She will be missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew her and I feel blessed to have grown up, knowing her. My prayers are with her family as they mourn her.
