“ My Aunt Lil and Uncle Mike were a big part of my childhood. They always had time for a small child, and patience for an adolescent. What I remember about Lillian in particular was that when she sat down with you, whether to play a game, read a book, or just talk to you, you had 100% of her attention. And she did not want to be interrupted; I think Uncle Mike got on the wrong side of that one a time or two! Lillian was one of the most consistently kind and good natured people I have met. And with a great sense of humor. My family was able to spend time with her and Mike when they came to visit my parents in Maryland and Nevada for the holidays. She only got better with age. My own children thought she and Mike were great. And, they did spoil them a little. My younger son will stay say the "angel of god" prayer that Lillian taught him years ago with my mother.

We were blessed to share parts of our life with her here, and they are blessed to share eternity with her where she it now.
