“ Such a warm and caring person. When my daughter was going thru her breast cancer treatments, she reached out to her even though she was going thru her own treatments. Praying for her each day I hoped for a better outcome but she is at peace now. 🙏 Will miss your smiling face at car cruises. Mike and Gloria

My deepest sympathy to you Bill and your family. Linda made me a beautiful cross stitch and I was always happy to visit with her at the institute. She was strong and a very caring person. She was a blessing. Praying for you all.

“ My earliest memory of Linda. Is of three smiling teenagers (Linda, Debbie and Donna) heading out for the day. Captured in time, on a single Kodak color photo, in front of my mother's house... Throughout life's journey. Our memories grow. So many happy milestones, with some sad bumps in the road. Today I will ponder life's good memories of Linda. Tomorrow, I'll grieve with the family.
