“ Lynn Gynn; you truly will be missed by Sonny and Danny. Your laughter and upbeat attitude were always present. Your effect on so many of us, was so positive; so few people have the qualities you displayed. WE WILL MISS SEEING YOU.

“ Lisa, My thoughts are with you at this time of tremendous loss. My deepest sympathy to you, Greg, Tammy and Ralph.

Heaven has another angel! Linda has been in my life forever. The first 4 years of my life, I spent more time at the Morgan house than at home. I loved, Aunt Marion, Linda, Butch and Uncle Mutt. They were my second family. I have so so many cherished memories that to this day, I still remember. Linda has been a big part of my life then and now. Her sudden departure is a loss to her family, friends and all who were privileged to have known her. My life was better because she was in it.

Rest in peace Linda.

Love you always,

Your cousin Darlene

“ Always looking for fun and love. Well, you've found it. Many of us loved her as our friend and classmate. She did so much for us and did it to the top! She suffered greatly and is now will our Lord. I will remember your laughter, enthusiasm and love for our Steelers! I will remember your kindness and I will be happy you are at peace but selfishly, I will wish you were here--to dance--sing--and laugh!
Goodbye old friend

“ I feel like I lost the last connection to my old neighborhood. Since connecting on FaceBook, Linda served a memory jogger about our wonderful Lynda Lane. We always teased about Linda Morgan from Linda Lane. She was so full of energy. She had such nice things to say about my Mom and Dad's pretty yard and flowers. Lisa, know that my prayers are with and for your family. May she rest in peace .

“ I am very, very shaken over this loss. My heart is filled with sorrow and sadness for her daughter Lisa. A very close Mother & Daughter duo. I didn't spend a lot of time with Linda, but the times we did share, with the children, she was fun, vivacious and kind. I wish you GOD SPEED Linda and I know you are surely Flying High above the clouds. You are not an x fly girl .... you are THE FLY GIRL having the time of your new life! You have truly earned your wings Linda.

GOD Bless and Rest easy,
