“ I have the pleasure of knowing this wonderful person for 18 years. I met her Mother's Day of 2001 in Irwin with Lindsey, and I have felt very loved and very much a part of her family since that day. My family and I have been very blessed to be able to spend so many special times with her over the years. She remembered every birthday, every holiday, every Valentine's Day, and always sent a card, a gift, and a smile. What an absolute joy to be able to have her as a grandmother to me and a great grandmother to my children. She loved those kids dearly, and they her. We will all forever hold you deeply in our hearts, Grandma Princess.
