“ Maggie was the most wonderful person to know first as a colleague and then as a friend. I worked with her for many years with "special" students and she was the best! She was caring, and had a great rapport with the students and faculty. We had so many great times together and wonderful memories that I will cherish forever! Maggie and Bob's love was so strong, and she would often say she was a lucky person... and she was! Maggie would want her memories to be happy, and celebrated with family and friends. Most importantly, she would want her Bob to take care of himself and to continue on with life until they meet again. Maggie, we will miss you and love you lots!

Love you!

“An amazing woman and better grandmother, I am very thankful to have known her and proud to be her grandson. She will be missed, but if I know anything about her, she would not want mourning. She was a beautiful woman that onky wanted to see others happy. Her smile was warming and laugh was infectious. I love her dearly. Thanks to everyone for your kind words.

“My sympathy to the family. I will surely miss seeing her every Friday at the hair salon. Bob would bring Reba in, and then get Maggie. Over 30 years of laughs and great memories.
