“ Maria will be missed. Will always recall an afternoon at a picnic when she shared the storyline of a novel she has been imagining for quite a while. Very creative and real to life we all would have purchased! One always misses a person who is so caring. Sincere condolences to her family and to Cynthia.

“ My love and condolences go out to Cynthia and Maria's entire family. I only met Maria once, in June, when I was visiting Irwin for our class reunion. She seemed to radiate with a quiet, intelligent sense of humor and sense of goodness – a warm, caring human being. I know she will be greatly missed and has left wonderful memories for everyone she touched. Indeed, for all who loved her. My heart goes out to you all...
