“ I've known Terry & Marie through their son Mark and daughter-in-law Lori. Both Terry and Marie made feel like their own son whenever I was around and warmly welcomed in their home. Mark always commented that their house was the house all the neighborhood kids would spend time at...I think she was a second Mom to many! Marie and my mother-in-law, Terry, bounded over their love of Italian cooking when they came out to Seattle for our wedding. Her Christmas cookie package was always looked forward to and appreciated at the office. We are all deeply sorry for her loss and prayer there is comfort knowing the powerful impact she had on so many lives. Love, Paul, Kristie & Julianna
