“ When I think of Marion Jereb, my brother-in-law, I think of an upstanding, extremely intelligent, kind, and highly principled man. Marion was devoted to his wife, Anne, and his family whom he adored and always put first. Marion worked hard at his job always investing over and above which was required because he was dedicated to excellence. Marion was also a patriot, who loved and served his country, and as a post-Army serviceman he volunteered his time and service for many years to 94th infantry. Marion was highly respected and loved by me Rickie, and my family, Charles, Jr. Christopher, and Claudia who live in California. Since I was married to Marion's brother, Charles, who preceded Marion in death, I'm so thankful for all the fond memories, and for knowing such a fine man as Marion. I pray that Marion is now at peace and reunited with his mother, and brother.

May God bless his family at this difficult time with His divine presence and consolation that only He can give.

*Love,
Mrs. Rickie Jereb*
