“ Marjorie was a cousin who a little older seemed to be more like my mother's cousin. Even sending a Christmas card once signed aunt Marjorie & Ken. We shared many laughs and stories about our grandmother Beatrice. Both of us being raised partly by our grandmother at different times up on a Iowa farm. She told about pulling weeds from the garden or the time come from school instead of changing from school clothes and chores they ate the fresh baked rolls. Pour gram lit into them as after hard work she was hurt and had to make more bread. Marjorie told how her and gram hand worked making pies. The neighbor men would go to help at each other's farms at dinner break Marjorie said the men gathered at tables rush in eating the food and pies gone and back to work. Marjorie told gram the men made pigs of themselves eating all the pies. We shared some old family photos and many laughs on the phone, I will really miss her. RIP prayers Terry & Janet
