“ Dear Uncle Bob and Everyone, I have such wonderful memories of spending time at your house... sliding down the basement steps on cardboard, catching grasshoppers in the field, learning to ride a two wheeler behind the school, playing and swinging in the back yard, overnights in the girls room, babies in the crib, lots of fun and much smiling and laughing. And especially Martina turning 13, a teenager, to my paltry 11. Looking forward to seeing you, my idol, "Wild Thing, and everyone else. Aunt Tina sure hated it when school started! Much Love, Deb
