“ Mary Lynn and i met at age 5 at Risinger Elementary School in Horner City, Pa. Both of us were simple rural kids from humble beginnings. We shared the next 12 years as classmates but it wasn't until we were adults with families of our own before we connected as real friends. I'm sorry for the missed years but grateful for the reconnection. You did well Mary Lynn. Great husband and two handsome kids. I'm sorry we didn't spend more time together but smile over the times we did share.

...Until we meet on the others side. Your friend, Lorri

“ Mary Lynn was my neighbor, we would run up and down between each other's houses every day , playing Barbies, playing on my grandfather's farm just being kids and so happy! I want to remember her that way ! Rest In Peace my friend and neighbor ❤️

“ Robert and family,
I was sorry to learn of the passing of Mary Lynn and wanted to extend my sincere sympathy for your loss. Mary Lynn was always kind and helpful to me during my annual visits to Eisenstat Candy for Aflac benefits. I have fond memories of your Mount Oliver location and the loyal employees serving the company. You should be so proud of the legacy Mary Lynn left in her business dealings, and as a wife and mother. May your sadness be softened by the presence of caring friends and family. I wish you strength and peace in the days ahead.

“ So many fun times at hockey. Watching the kids grow. Wheeling you down the boardwalk at Atlantic city on a luggage rack wearing your swishy skirt. You will be missed. Wonderful mom and wife.
