Mike and I spend many hours together and some real quality time shooting, eating and talking with friends. As I get older I reflect on the good times with my PA buddies and realize that those experiences were unique and will never be duplicated. I remember before Lou Pacilla died he told Mike and I that we had to go make new memories once he was gone and we made many. I have many fond memories of Mike, not always the easiest guy to like but hard for me to stay mad at!. I could tell 100 "one more story real quick" on Mike. I've been happy to know Mike and and very sad he is gone. See you again on the other side my friend the "Wild Bunch" will be together again! Love Ken!

“ HI All, I am sad that Mike has passed from this world to the next, HE WAS MY FRIEND! He and I spoke fairly often, usually weekly over the last couple years and I believe I got to know him well in that time. We have been Kentucky buddies for many years and he invited me to join the WILD BUNCH so we've spent many happy hours shooting, talking and having dinner each night. He was well liked and respected for his love of German guns in particular. I've spent a lot of time thinking about him and wish I could hear "Just one more quick story" which I had probably heard a number of times already, but Mike liked telling them and I was happy to listen. He had so many hopes and dreams and experiences.

Remember him fondly, especially you his family, he was a special guy and wanted so much to be helpful. Sometimes we have to listen to a person's heart. I think of the old saying "He loved not wisely, but too well". We can all reflect on our communication to our loved ones and family, and I speak to myself also on this note.

I believe that Mike was a true believer in Jesus Christ as he and I spoke of our beliefs on a number of occasions, and I expect to see him in Heaven again someday. Remember, none of us are perfect, but when we accept the gift of forgiveness offered by Christ on the cross at Calvary, we became new people, forgiven through the shed blood of Christ, worthy to stand before the throne of GOD, washed thru Christ's sacrifice, the perfect spotless Lamb of GOD. Mike and I were and are not perfect people, but we were/are forgiven because of Christ's shed blood.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no man comes unto the Father but by me. John 14:6 Mike acknowledged that Christ was his savior to me and I can testify that he did it. see 1 JOHN 2:23

Let's remember Mike with joy! I will!
