“ I feel truly blessed to have had Michael as my eldest cousin. He teased me unmercifully, made me laugh hysterically, listened when I was troubled, and scolded me when I needed it ( although I never thought that I needed it). No matter what, though, I always respected him. Although we drifted apart when we grew older, my love for him never lessened. I think that he knew that. I thank God that he was part of my life, as he made it better in more ways than he will ever know. Rest in Peace, dear cousin. I will see you again some day. -Cindy Lou (see...I remember what you used to call me when I was little)

“ Mike was a true gentleman. He served his church as a devoted Elder often questioning things and taking a stand, but always in the best interest of the church. Rest in peace my friend. My sympathies to Karen and family. Rich Jovan
