

Nancy L. (Singler) Waibel

January 16, 1952 - October 29, 2023

Nancy L. (Singler) Waibel, 71, of North Huntingdon, passed away peacefully on Sunday October 29, 2023 surrounded by her family and friends. She was born January 16, 1952 in Pittsburgh, a daughter of the late Delbert L. and Dorothy M. (Wiggins) Singler. In addition to her parents she is preceded in death by siblings Delbert L. Singler who was killed in action during the Vietnam Conflict, David J. Singler, and Mary Ann Daniels. She is survived by her children Kristy (James) Reddinger Jr. of Cheswick, Katie (Tracy) Yarbrough of St. Cloud FL, and Edward (Missy) Waibel III of North Huntingdon; her grandchildren Logan, Emma, Jalissa, Jada, and Isaiah; sisters Jeannette (Gordon) Stoves and Dorothy Mae Morris; her lifelong friend Ronald Pisarek; also numerous nieces and nephews.

Nancy was a proud mother, fierce protector, and faithful provider; always making sure her children had everything they needed, even if it meant working multiple jobs. After putting her three children through college, she pursued her lifelong dream of becoming a registered nurse. At the age of 50,

Nancy began nursing school and later worked as an RN for the VA Medical Center in Oakland and retired in 2022. Nancy loved surprising her family with gifts and adventures, laughing with friends and family, traveling to the Caribbean, and spoiling her grandchildren. She will be deeply missed by all who loved her.

At Nancy's request there will be no viewing or services. The William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin, is handling arrangements. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.

“ Ed,
Sorry for your loss, man. I remember when we'd have sleepovers at your house, your mom was always there to make sure we didn't annoy your sisters too much. She always dealt with us making those crazy drink creations with whatever we could find in the fridge. She was just a cool mom all around.

“ So very sorry for your loss. Met Nancy in 1972, we brought out the “bad” in each other, and have stayed friends. Heard from her about 2 weeks ago. Always wanted her to visit but she just kept saying “I'm working on it”. Rest in peace dear friend. Kathy McDaniel Ehrentraut. Myrtle Beach SC.
