“ I met Nate a year ago when he was in Butler. My boyfriend was his roommate. I took a liking to him immediately. We used to talk and he often referred to my boyfriend as his spiritual advisor. His heart was bigger than his presense. His smile was genuine, he was a gentlemen in many ways. He had many dreams, loved his family and spoke of his daughter with a light in his eyes. I was devastated by his loss. He will be remembered fondly, not forgotten. He shared and touched many lives in the rooms. My heart and prayers are with you. Please know he was loved by many of us who knew him.
