“ Norma Wolfgang was my aunt, my mother's younger sister. She was warm, loving and fun.

Despite the distance between our homes after we had moved to the Philadelphia area, our two families got together often, and we were always excited to see each other. Usually arriving late on a Friday night, we would share a dessert before going to bed. Aunt Norma often had a bowl of sliced peaches ready to put over ice cream when they were in season I also remember Uncle Bud making peach ice cream on the porch. Aunt Norma was also a wonderful baker (I still use some of her cookie recipes at Christmas). When she and my mother were working in either's kitchen together, there would be nonstop talking and laughter.

Our two families vacationed together in Ocean City, NJ. When my husband and I were living in South Jersey, they would drive over to see us or we would meet them in Ocean City and walk the boardwalk together. I have many happy memories of our times together.

My strongest memories of Aunt Norma are filled with love and laughter. Thank you, Curt, for taking such care of your mom, my aunt, through her final ten years of a long life.

“ I have so many fond memories of Norma (and “Bud,” Diane and Curt). Our two families enjoyed many good times together. Norma and my late mom were friends since WWII! Norma was kind, caring and wonderful to be around. May she rest in peace.

“ From niece Connie Seymour: Aunt Norma was a wonderful loving Aunt who I loved very much. She was so kind and pleasant to be around. She and I both shared our love for bowling. I didn't know this for many years but wished I had. She was a better bowler than I was. Aunt Norma lived a very long life much of it because of the care from her son, Curt. Love you, Aunt Norma.
