“ Memories of my mom, there are many. I will always remember how she loved me to come & see her. She would say, “thank you for coming, I really enjoyed myself”. She loved going shopping & going out to lunch. She loved vacations and went on several with us. Where-ever I asked her to go she, was up for it. She would listen to me talk for long periods of time on the phone & never complain about me being so long winded. She loved kids & being with her grandchildren. Today on Thanksgiving, I am thankful that I was able to spend 56 years with her but of coarse, I wish it could’ve been more. Happy Thanksgiving Mom.

Olive. Typing her name brings up an olive branch. That makes sense to be as she was always welcoming when I entered her home. Always was peaceful to me. So calm. Loving. Understanding. Living across the street, I was there often. Her house was so different from mine. Allowed me to witness some normalcy when times were tough for me. She was stern, determined, hard working, caring and a great cook. So thankful for you and what I learned just from observing, either from looking through my window or sitting on your couch. I can only imagine the loss your family is going through having you not physically around but I know you will be watching over them like a hawk to keep them all grounded. RIP Olive. You will be missed. Fantastic woman, wife, mother, friend. So blessed to have been your neighbor 🍷
