“ I only met Owen a few times, but in June 2021, I got to spend quite a bit of time over a week chatting with him while he and Dottie were in Michigan for the Kirtland's Warbler Census. I enjoyed his sense of humor and he was so fun to share stories with. My sincere condolences go out to his family. I am in shock and I can't imagine how you all feel.

“ I am shocked and saddened to hear of Owen's untimely death. Although we only knew each other via usual post office interactions, Owen left an impression with his kindness and dedication to his work. He took the time and gave the extra effort to make someone else's day easier and brighter. My sincere condolences to his family.
