“ Remembering you, old friend today,
I was saddened to hear you passed away.
My high school sweetheart for many years,
we shared fun times and yes, some tears.
I now think of those days of our past, how time seemed to move so fast.
Backyard swims, concerts, and trips, these memories and more puts a smile to my lips.
I remember your fun, charismatic smile
You made people laugh with your unique style.
You meant so much to me back then, but our path in life never crossed again.
Over the years I was glad to hear of news, a business, a family, a son to follow in your shoes.
My sorrow and prayers are with your family this night , May God hold them in his arms so very tight. 🙏

My condolences to all of Phil's family. I am so deeply sorry..

“ You were such a fun and caring friend. I remember several times when you kept me out of harms way at Gateway. More importantly, I am so glad that Ed and Stacey brought me by to see you and your family before we moved to MS, because I got to see you as a loving father and partner to your beautiful wife. An awesome man gone way to early!
