“ I had the good fortune to have met Ralph through our Restinghousers Golf League. I so thoroughly enjoyed golf and post-golf time with him as he regaled us with the wonderful times he'd always spent with Alice, his children and grandchildren. And always with a smile and a twinkle in his eyes. Such a pleasant and upbeat outlook he always seemed to have. It made for times you'd look forward to spending with him. He was a kind, sweet, and gentle man, one I'll always remember dearly. He will surely be missed. To his family I extend my deepest condolences for what must be a very difficult loss. Rest in peace, Ralph.

“ You will be missed and I am thankful for so many memories I am thankful for my love of the outdoors and campfire sandwiches, I am thankful that every time something breaks in my house I am determined to fix it myself, I'm thankful for knowing the right way to make fudge, I'm thankful that even when you see the Browns beat the steelers by 50 you don't throw away your terrible towel, but most of all I'm thankful for you Grandpa. I love you and miss you already.
