(Arlet) Hartmann; his son Dondi Hartmann; siblings George (the late Kathy) Hartmann and Jean (George) Klein; sisters-in-law Sandra (the late Jim) Regrut, Bonnie (Chris) Follett, and Debbie (David) Moss; also numerous nieces and nephews. “ The best brother-in-law ever. Countless memories with so much fun and laughter. Ray was generous and kind, ready and willing to do anything for you. He was like a father and definitely a playmate for my children and all nieces and nephews. Ray, Emily and I were like the three musketeers. Ray was especially found of crime donkey who we encountered in our trip to Hawaii.

Needless to say there is a void and such a loss for our family. Jesus will have His hands full with Raymond. But oh so much fun in heaven.

Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. No one goes to the Father except through Jesus Christ. John 14:6

“ My sincerest condolences to Emily and her family. Ray was a very outgoing person and his skills in diagnosing car problems were second to none. He was a good neighbor too. I remember stories of him going trick or treating with the kids on Halloween. If you didn't offer him a shot or a beer, he left the empties in your mailbox. May his reward in Heaven be great.
