

Richard W. Baldrige

December 3, 1934 - December 10, 2019

Richard W. Baldrige, 85, of North Huntingdon, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, December 10, 2019. Richard was born on December 3, 1934 to the late William Ray and Leona (Ault) Baldrige of McKeesport. Richard was a U.S. Army veteran and he was a former employee of Papercraft of Jeannette and Blawnox. He was an avid model train collector, enjoyed watching his Pittsburgh sports teams on T.V., and spending time socializing with all of his neighborhood retired friends. He is survived by his former wife Karen Baldrige; his children Rick (Doreen) Baldrige, Scott Baldrige and companion Jeannie Sonnenberg, and Dennis Baldrige all of North Huntingdon; grandsons Rick and Chris Baldrige. Friends will be received from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday at the William Snyder Funeral Home, 521 Main Street, Irwin, where a funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Interment will follow in Mars Hill Cemetery. The family would like to thank the staff at Transitions, North Huntingdon for their outstanding care and compassion.

I am Linda Dunn Klager. Richard was my cousin. I have fond memories of him. His laugh and smile was so sweet and his eyes sparkled when he talked to me. When I was a little girl, Richard would take me for wheelbarrow rides around my parents' yard. I remember when Richard was a single guy that he had a beautiful light blue and white car. I do not remember the make of the car, but Richard took such good care of it. At Christmas Time my parents and sister and I would visit Richard at his parents' house and Richard would let me run his train under the Christmas Tree. I will never forget Richard's kindness to me.
