“ We will always remember Dick as a paternal figure, kind, taking care of everybody's needs. As the father of the extended family who he built, he always opened his and Janet's home for Christmas, Thanksgiving Day, birthdays and special celebrations, to give us a shelter and a home. He also was, to our children, an extended family grandfather. Our older kids, who got to know him, always remember and appreciate those memories and, as we have, have always wanted to visit Dick and family back in Kent. Belen has recently been our ambassador in visiting and sharing many loving memories. His teachings as professor of life, will always remain in our memories. Love, Delia and Francisco Casiello. Rosario, Argentina.
