“ I'm Ricky's oldest sister Sandy and I loved him very much. He was a wild child growing up and we didn't always see eye to eye. I used to watch my 5 younger brothers and sisters and Ricky was one of them. I was more than a sister to him because we were so close in age and just because he was bigger and stronger than me, he didn't always want to listen to me or Mommy. We used to chase him and then couldn't really punish him because he made us laugh. He used to come to my house when I first got married and we had great parties and he helped us get our first house by helping to paint and clean up. We went through a lot of kegs and Kentucky Fried Chicken. I'm really going to miss him. RIP Ricky and THANK GOD he took your pain away. I'm going to miss him harassing me and just being RICKY.
