

Roberta Keenen

May 2, 1946 - June 20, 2014

Roberta M. "Bobbie" (Koontz) Keenan, age 68 of North Huntingdon, died at home Friday June 20, 2014. She was born May 2, 1946 in Wilksburg, a daughter of the late Joseph J. and Margaret (Fleck) Koontz and was also preceded in death by a brother Joseph G. Koontz. Bobbie was a retired switchboard operator for Greater Pittsburgh Orthopedic Associates, a member of New Hope Presbyterian Church, North Huntingdon, where she served as a deacon and was a member of the GLOH women's group. Bobbie participated annually in the Susan G. Komen Race For the Cure and fought cancer herself for thirteen years. Her family and her church were the most important things in her life and she will be greatly missed. Surviving are her children, Tracy (John) Plassio, Jeff West (Vanda Divirgilio), and Scott West all of North Huntingdon; her grandchildren, Nicole, Katelyn, and Allison Plassio, and Dylan Kitchen; a sister Joanne Gumski of North Huntingdon; a brother Edward Koontz of Colorado; also nieces and nephews and many special friends. At Bobbie's request there will be no viewing. A memorial service will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday July 6, 2014 in New Hope Presbyterian Church, 12707 Lincoln Way, North Huntingdon, with her pastor Rev. Ms. Janet Reid, officiating. William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin, 724-863-1200, is in charge of arrangements. In lieu of flowers a contribution can be made in Bobbie's name to Susan G. Komen For the Cure, or New Hope Presbyterian Church.
