

Rose Macchione

May 18, 1924 - January 15, 2023

Rose Macchione, of East McKeesport, died Sunday January 15, 2023. She was born May 18th, 1924, in East McKeesport, a daughter of the late Contino and Elvira (Severino) Conti. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Charles Macchione and siblings Lillian Dingeldein and Dominic Conti. Rose worked many years as a cook and ice cream “creator” at the former Isaly’s at Great Valley Shopping Center as well as L & B Dairy at Fifth Avenue, North Versailles Township.

Rose was a classy woman who loved people, her family, and most of all, the Lord. Her love for life was contagious. She would brighten up a room whenever she walked in. She had a deep love for Pittsburgh and always felt blessed to build a life with her husband and kids there. Rose loved cooking, all things ice cream, and spending time with her family. She was loved by many and will be missed dearly.

She is survived by her children Charles Macchione Jr. (Donna), Nancie Muro (Nick), and Connie Ash (Gary); nine grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren. A Celebration of life will be held on Friday, January 20, 2023. Friends are welcome from noon until 2 p.m. at Forgie-Snyder Funeral Home, 1032 Broadway, East McKeesport, 412-823-8083. The Celebration of life service will follow at 2 p.m. She will then be laid to rest at Grandview Cemetery. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.

“ Rose use to come into the Magic Carpet Beauty Salon where I worked. She was always soooo nice. And of course I would have lunch at Isaly's, and again always so nice. I know her family must be sad, but hopefully Rose is going on to a better place. Best wishes on your journey Rose. George

“ So many memories. But one especially comes up. We were all sitting in roses kitchen on Punta Gorda St. on the radio, Big Boys Don't Cry! Aunt Rose began dancing, singing in Frankie Valli's voice tone with the music. She could be so upbeat, it was exciting. The other night I was watching a rerun of ghost with Whoopi Goldberg. And Whoopi's big smiles made me think of Aunt Rose!
The next day, I got the sad news from cousin Connie. I still see her, aunt Rose, in her kitchen on Punta Gorda St. in East McKeesport. It makes me happy sad.
