“ I will never forget the first time I met Rosemary in May of 1985. It was burger night. She made me feel at home immediately. This was not a house, this was a home. It felt good to just be there. Rosemary made a stranger feel like family- not just me, anyone she met. So much love, so much laughter. I am blessed that my children had Rosemary as their grandmother. She will live on in their hearts forever. I love you, Mom.

“ My Aunt Rosemary was a fantastic, loving, kind, charitable person with a great sense of humor. She will be missed by her many nieces and nephews. Many great memories of all the great "Cousin" visits we shared for birthdays, graduations, and general fun mayhem.

“ My grandma always loved spending time with her family and grandkids. We were all so blessed to have her as long as we did! Unfortunately it's hard to find a picture with all of us, but here are a few of her grandchildren!
