“ Likar/Parry/Griffiths Families,

People are lucky to have wonderful parents. I was exceptionally lucky because growing up across the street, I always felt like your mom was a second mom to me. I have so many memories that I will cherish forever. I will never forget drive-in movies, roller skating, getting my ears pierced, going to the cottage in Lake Erie, going to see Grease, sitting and talking on the back porch for hours, swimming in the pool, and sled riding down the big hill in the back yard. Your mom was always so generous - she always paid for me and let me keep "that original five dollar bill." May God give you comfort and strength during this difficult time.
