“ One my greatest Memories with you was when you let me drive down Wyngate ave in Monroeville. It was a Beautiful spring day, the windows were open our hair was blowing! This extremely fuzzy yellow jacket flew through the window and landed somewhere between you and I. We ended up in the grass, doors open, running for our lives. All the no fear and strength that you had taught me to that point in my life, went out the same window that little bee flew in. Oh did we laugh until tears that day, but we did it with the windows up and the ac on! I Love You so much Grams❤️
