“ I met Shirley after my son (Joe Steel) married Vanessa. Always looked forward to seeing Shirley at get togethers thru out the years. She had a contagious belly laugh. Loved receiving cards from Shirley with caring little notes. A true friend that will be missed. Shirley will forever live in my heart. Until we met again. Love Donna Steel

“ My name is Brandon Brozack. And, I was Shirley's great nephew. I'm her nephew George's son. Being in Michigan for my whole life I've had little interaction with several relatives that my Pittsburgh area roots come from. However, He, my Aunt Jan, and my PaPa, would always tell me stories of the places and people who helped shape them as kids. Aunt Shirley and Aunt Cookie were always spoken highly of. You could always expect a card in the mail for birthdays, and holidays alike from Aunt Shirley, and like them, I appreciated it greatly. The welcoming party for our family continues to grow in heaven for those of us who remain on earth. Until then, I hope with all that I am that they're all together, happy, and basking in the light. RIP Aunt Shirley.

“ I’m John J. Safran, Shirley AKA “ Bocca” was my great aunt. We were all very close my entire life, and when we moved to GA we stayed close. Bocca and uncle Ken would visit us yearly, and we would come back to PA for Christmas every year. We usually stayed in PA for 3 weeks, and everywhere we went Bocca was with us. We usually ended the night at my Grampie’s bar on Brush Hill Rd, which included football, pizza, and drinks. One year we were really having a good time, talking and watching a game. We decided to put some music on, and I didn’t know but Bocca and my Grandmother are huge old country fans, as am I. We sat there till after midnight singing every word, with Bocca telling me stories about the singers, she liked Waylon Jennings. It was a great time and we will miss her, everyday. Love you Bocca
