“ It is with a heavy heart to hear of the passing of Sue. Sue and I had many meetings and late night phone calls fundraising for the Norwin Cheerleaders. We were a team. Sue was poised, professional, and just delightful to work with. I will miss her. My deepest condolences to her family.

“ Having worked with Sue at Point Park University for over 12 years, I extend my sympathy to Sue's family and specifically to Kayla who also worked with our group for a brief time. She truly loved her children and family! Sue had a very demanding and stressful job but found ways to show her personal warmth and sense of humor. She didn't always suffer fools gladly; and being one myself at times, I appreciated her truthful and straightforward way of communicating. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing and working with her.

“ Sue welcomed me with open arms as a college student when I worked as a work study in the payroll office at Point Park University. She was an amazing mentor and someone I could spend hours talking with. I owe my HR career to her, truly, as she fully believed in me and encouraged me, and once I graduated college she presented me with my first HR job opportunity. I'll always remember our special chats, downtown lunches, and just having such a wonderful person in my life. Sue was so supportive of those she cared about and was always genuinely happy for others. My prayers to her family that God's peace spread over you all.

“ Our family has been intertwined with the Smith family for around 45 years when our daughter Jodi brought Scott Smith home to meet us. From that day on, the Smith family became our family too. We met Bill and Rita, Sue and Sandra and they welcomed us with open arms. Life's journey has taken us to today. Our families have lost loved ones along the way, but we still have so much to be thankful for. Blessings and strength to the Smith family 🙏

“ We became friends working at Point Park University. I called her "Sue-Bee Honey".. because she really had a giant heart and was super sweet to me! Whenever she knew I needed to talk, she would stop what she was doing, on a dime, greet me with her big bright beautiful smile and those big sparkling pale blue eyes, and we would talk about the most important things. Matters of the heart. She was just plain REAL was not afraid to say it as it was and could make you laugh your ___ off! I know she had to have had the most stressful job, but she showed up every day and gave it 110%..and looked like a fashion icon all the while, , with her graceful hands, sporting manicured nails,and always wearing a three-inch heel! She adored her beautiful family, intensely, and always had so much pride when showing off those pictures! I missed her when she retired....my only regret was losing touch! Yet I know she would have wanted those last years to be wrapped up in her family! God has a feisty angel up there in heaven and I'm sure he will assign her some important work! I love you Sue-Bee!

“ Sue welcomed me decades ago to Point Park and Pittsburgh when I had just moved there. Her smile, wry sense of humor and quick wit made me laugh daily at work even when we were pulling our hair out. She was such a devoted mother and I often told her I hoped I would be half as good a mother when I had kids. Even after I moved, she kept in touch and I would get the random “thinking of you” card always with a scratch off in it! I love Sue and am so grateful to have had her in my life. Rest in peace Sue and my thoughts and prayers are with her family.
