“ *Dear John,
My condolences on the loss of your mother. Your friendship inside and outside of the fire department was always special to me. When you showed up to my high school graduation party in June of 79, I knew I was special because you and that El Dorado were the coolest. Never forgot you and Lee standing next to me as I conducted my first funeral for that beautiful Saint Bernard. God bless, Johnny Neil johncneil411@gmail.com
Good memories of you stopping to talk to my parents and me after you cut Grant and Pearl Osborn's grass.*
