“ My heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. What pain hurts worse than the pain of losing someone that you love? Tammy was loved and she will be dearly missed. Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. One of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10).

Dear Ron, my heart aches with yours for the loss of Tammy. She was a wonderful young lady and so vibrant. I always felt that we were one big family living on the same street. You have surely had your share of grief. May she be with Jesus now, and may you also cling closer to him. This has come as quite a shock. I love you Ron Brown and God Bless.

“ I am in shock of the earthly loss of Tammy. I only had the pleasure of working with her via phone calls but she was a sweet, genuine, pure spirit that loved life, her children and family. I enjoyed hearing of her latest adventures including her stories of leaving work to go deerhunting. She said she was able to change and into the woods before she remembered she still had her makeup on. She always made phone calls funny after the business part was taken care of. You will be missed!
May God wrap his arms around her family to provide comfort during their grief. It is OKAY to grieve today, tomorrow and years.
Hugs and prayers.
