“ One of my earliest memories is of being at Tom's grandparents cottage when we were little. We would laugh about it years later, so I knew that he remembered too. We were probably 5-6 years old and it was years before the advent of the Super Soaker, We had squirt guns that were attached by a rubber tube to a plastic tank that hung on your belt. I remember us running around and around that cottage. A very wise investment by whoever. And of course being the girl, I was the clumsy one. I slipped and cracked my tank! :(Our fun could have been ruined forever, but one of our free thinking fathers fixed it by putting a band aid on the tank. One for the tank and one for my knee! A few tears later. (I WAS a girl remember!) And we were back at it!

I love you Cous! and I will Miss you forever.
