“ I'll never forget you Rev. Funk. You were a blessing to the Brown / Thomas family. You baptized me and some of my cousin when I was a teenager and the person I am today was made possible due to your influence. I'll love you always and I know god welcomed home one of his angels. My thoughts and prayers to Mrs. Narda and the family. Love Ladadsia and Shelly Thomas and the Brown Family ❤️

“ How the years together fly by, Narda. And how real the shock when the together part ends, though we know the day will come. Tom was a good pastor and a good DS. I appreciated and admired Tom for his calm, thoughtful ways, his wisdom and fairness in decisions, and his lifelong willingness to continue growing in faith and understanding regardless of where it led. I remember a coffee/ice-cream date we had in Erie with you and Tom one night [Eat n' Park?]. It was many years ago now, when we were in Edinboro. The DS/Pastoral charge roles and mindset were set aside and we just visited and laughed and freely talked. You were amused when I said I was thinking of getting a tattoo since so many young pastors had joined the "tatted" crowd. You asked me what I would get and I replied "I don't know, maybe a cross and flame logo somewhere," to which you laughed out loud. That is one warm memory that comes to mind. May the blessing of comforting and strengthening memories come to you daily, Narda, and with your whole family and loved ones. -Dean & Linda Ziegler

“ So many memories between our two families - beach vacations, New Year's Eve celebrations, Pirate games and the list goes on. I was honored to have your dad marry Todd and I in 2007. I am so very sorry for your loss. I know you all hold precious memories of your times together as a family. Sorry we cannot come and see you in person, but please know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I enjoyed my short time working with him at Irwin First UMC. I chuckle at the memory of the Easter that he hid chicks in his robe to surprise the children and the chicks made their way to his arm pit! And the time he released balloons to the sanctuary ceiling so that the little boy who had let his go would not feel sad. (Note: there is still one stuck in the rafters!) He loved talking with the children!
