“ I look at Tom's picture and see his Father and Grandfather and memories of a life time start to flow. His birth and childhood, his marriage and family. Always his humor and generous caring- there to lend a hand, there to party. He will be greatly missed. Loving wishes and prayers to Beth, Chad, Lauren, Jennifer, Alyce, Linda, Diane, grandchildren. May your precious loving family memories keep Tom's spirit alive in you. I share your sorrow. Cousin, Judith Kubish

“ Where do I start with memories - do I share the compassion and sadness Tom showed on the day that Imagen was closed down and Terry and I were released. Or of his open happiness when I was brought back to ExOne on a temporary turned permanent basis. Most definitely of the times he shared with me about Isaac's condition and subsequent surgeries - the prayers we had for him. Or maybe the personal conversations we had on Tom's health. And what of his quick thinking in the “controlled chaos” that resulted from the Abbott furnace belt breaking. We worked so well together - and more than that we developed a strong bond, a strong friendship. Tom was a true friend and I miss him - will continue to miss him.
