“ Remembering all the great times with our families. Rest with God Mr. Szmuc. 🕊️

“ Some of the memories that have come flooding back as I mourn Tommy's passing:

- How he would always without fail bring me a new Matchbox car every time he came to pick up Sandi for a date in his pink and black '56 Ford.

- Going to hundreds of stock car races at Heidelberg, he and Sandi would always take me along even though I embarrassed them sometimes with my overzealous booing of Herb Scott. That was in the first car he had when he came home from Vietnam, a black '65 Ford Galaxie 500 outfitted with his favorite chrome reverse wheels and baby moons.

- Helping me fix up my first car, a '65 Barracuda, I can still see us doing bodywork on it in his garage.

- More trips to Heidelberg in his next car, a gold '69 428 Fairlane Cobra with a 4-speed.

I can remember him scaring the pants off of me the first time he took me for a ride in it.

- Trips to PID to see the funny cars and pro stocks and on occasion watching Tommy race his Cobra.

- Snowmobiling at Seven Springs

- Meticulously cleaning every last grain of that 'goddamn sand' off his feet before he'd get in his car at Daytona Beach as the high tide inched perilously close to trapping us in the soft sand.

- Going to dirt races at Grove City and Butler when we were at the cottage.

- Honoring me by serving as my Best Man.

- Road trips to NASCAR races at Michigan, Pocono, Daytona and Richmond.

- Going to the Dirt Track World Series races in October in Pennsboro West Virginia and freezing our butts off.

- How he hated to have his picture taken.

- How furious he would get when we were playing Mil Bournes and I would put stop cards on him.

Tommy was more than a brother-in-law to me. He was my friend, mentor, racing buddy, confidant and a second father to me. As you can tell by my memories he instilled his love of cars and racing in me. He helped mould me into a hard working, honest man I became and and for that I am forever grateful.

RIP Tommy.

“ At ease uncle Tommy. Lay down your pack, loosen your boots, and rest. You've earned it brother!

Tommy was more than an uncle, he was also my military brother. He knew that I understood that we "Carry The Load," and that many people never see or know about the things in our pack. We carry those who served with us as we drift into sleep, we hear their voices, we see their faces, we smell the smells, we hear the sounds clearly, we feel the damp and hot, and we relive that time so far away from home. I'll forever be thankful that Tommy spoke to me as a brother, not just a nephew, as the years passed by and our service bond grew stronger.

May you rest in eternal peace and may the Love of God shine upon you.
