“Sadly, I only just found out that Tom has passed away when my Christmas card was returned. I am incredibly sad. Tom and Connie were dear friends of our family while I was growing up. I have such happy memories of them, especially visiting our cottage on Lake Erie. Connie regaled us with hilarious work stories. Tom loved fishing so much. Unfortunately he became so seasick that he would spend the next day sleeping it off in bed. But he always did it again. I still think of them often. I just know that Tom, Connie and my Mom and Dad are sitting up in heaven, sharing their stories and updates and having the best time. Much love Karen and Bethany.”
