“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest condolences. May the care and love of those around you provide comfort and peace to get you and your family through the days ahead.

Vince always was good to me, treated me with respect and dignity. Even though we weren't family by blood, he always treated as such.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Uncle Vince. He was always kind, engaging, and fun to be around whenever we had our family visits to Pittsburgh. As a young kid, I especially enjoyed listening to Uncle Vince rib and joke with all my aunts and uncles, and fondly remember him being a good husband and father. All my best to Danny and all the rest of Vince's family and friends.

“ Vince was my Uncle after he married my Aunt Janis. I was 13 or so and used to babysit my cousins Billy and Brian. Vince was a breath of fresh air in Aunt Janis' life and my first experience with a divorced situation. I realized that there could be a positive outcome due to Vince's kindness and patience. My memory of Vince of when I was in college, and after I asked my Mom today, I realized Vince never "Told on me". I was 19 years old and had just moved to a not very safe neighborhood in Oakland. I had gone to a party in an even less desirable neighborhood and realized I was in some trouble. Uncle Vince , who worked night shift at the time, had told me many times to call him if I needed help. This was long before cell phones, but there were emergency phones at different places on campus, so I called and asked to be put in touch with Vince Seibel. I gave them an address, and within a few minutes, Vince's smiling face showed up. He was concerned, but didn't preach. I asked him not to tell my parents because my father did not approve of my living on campus. He promised not to tell, but made me promise to be smarter next time. He drove me safely home, gave me a hug, and never made me feel bad about it. I will miss you Uncle Vince .

*Dear Uncle Vince,
You will always be missed. My memories of you were always positive, seeing your kind smile and voice, seeing you record all of our family holidays. Loved hearing you and Uncle George always teasing each other. Danny was so blessed to have you as his loving father. You were always kind and mostly quiet gentle presence, sometimes picking on Bill and Brian and teasing Aunt Janis. I remember how happy Aunt Janis was and how in love she was with you. I'm so happy you were always there for Billy and Brian when we were little. You were always good to us Barbier kids too, and my stepfather, Joe, always enjoyed talking and joking around with you. Thank you for being such a amazing part of our family and for everything you did for us. We were very blessed. I love you always. May you rest in peace and eternal happiness with Aunt Janis.*

“ Uncle Vince was a kind hearted, funny family man. I will always remember his smile and the video camera which was an appendage back in the day. We are all so lucky in the Ferrari family to have all of the memories he captured for us. We may have thought them annoying then but he knew what he was doing. We love you Uncle Vince.

“ I loved how Janis used to call him Vinnie. He was so devoted to her, and he made her laugh and marvel at all the cooking he did when he got home from working second shift at Pitt. Of course, there was the inevitable cleanup Janis had to do the next morning....His jokes and sometimes outlandish stories kept us laughing or, in my case, good naturedly arguing with him. How Vince loved and cherished his baby son, Danny! I think Danny was the most photographed child in history. Of course, who in the Ferrari family could forget all the history Vince captured in his videos! What a treasure they are to us all now. Most of all, Vince was the hero caretaker of our sister Janis for the duration of her illness. For this, I will be forever grateful. I know Vince missed Janis terribly, but I am comforted now to know he is reunited with her.

“Vince was a great guy and I will always remember and admire him for taking care of Janis when she was sick, providing for the education of Bill and Brian and his perseverance with his son Dan helping him get over a rough patch after Janis passed. We all used to kid Vince when he video taped family gatherings and now we all want to see those videos when Dan digs them out.. Thanks Vince! Well Done! Please say hi to Janis for us!
