EM

“ I was one of the last of LCDR Doyle’s freshman class students of NJROTC during the 1990-91 school year at McKeesport Area High School. I still remember all he taught me in his class. I still remember some of the stories about his time in the Navy. I remember being in shock when I was selected as Outstanding Cadet during the annual inspection. I was the cadet dubbed with the nickname of “Knothead” during our week of mini boot camp at the Coast Guard Training Base in Cape May, New Jersey. They were only a handful of teachers that impacted my life for the better, and he was at the top of list. I will never forget him. Godspeed, Sir.
