“ To The Brown Family

I cannot put into words the appreciation that I had for Bill, as an employee and more importantly as a person. He was always so genuine and I had the most enjoyable conversations with him over the short time I had the opportunity to know him.

Sincerely and with my deepest condolences

I will always remember when we were kids playing with your Matchbox cars, Chip. We sure had fun. The backyard hill made your racetrack design! Ooooooh we had so much fun. You always loved cars—I know someday, in heaven, we will take a ride together in your favorite vehicle, a 1962 Imperial! Until then, rest. Love and prayers to you and your wonderful family.
